

Membership Application

1. Organization Name: _____

2. What is the classification of your organization:

Commercial

Government

Academic

Other: _____

Does your organization have not-for-profit status? Yes No

Country where your organization is located: _____

3. Membership Fee: Each PILA member must self-categorize into one of nine fee categories based on total (gross) publishing revenue before expenses are taken into account. Total (gross) publishing revenue includes all publishing-related proceeds from all the divisions of an organization (primary and secondary) for all types of activities (advertising, books, journals, databases, article charges, author fees, publication grants, institutional memberships, etc.). For membership organizations, member dues allocated to subscriptions are to be included in total publishing revenue.

Gross Publishing Revenue	Annual Fee	Check
< $1 million	$275
$1million - $5 million	$550
$5 million - $10 million	$1,650
$10 million - $25 million	$3,900
$25 million - $50 million	$8,300
$50 million - $100 million	$14,000
$100 million - $200 million	$22,000
$200 million - $500 million	$33,000
> $500 million	$50,000

For organizations that publish scholarly information as an ancillary activity, such as government organizations, the higher of either (1) total expenses for publishing operations or (2) gross publishing revenue should be used in determining the appropriate membership fee.

4. Please specify the types of content to which your organization will assign DOIs:

Publication Type	Check all that apply
Journal articles
Books and chapters
Conference proceedings
Components (tables, figures, etc)
Dissertations and theses
Reports and papers
Standards
Database (datasets and components)

5. Please provide the URL where your organization's publications are available:

6. Please list the type of access to your organization's online content:

Open Access
Mixed Access

Subscription
Other _____

Access to full-text: The Crossref Board of Directors request that all Crossref members provide access to their full-text electronic content, for Crossref-internal use only in surveying how publishers are implementing reference links. If content is restricted, you will need to supply access to the content. If your system supports IP-authentication, our IP-address (limited to Crossref staff) is: 208.254.38.69. Alternatively, use the space below to supply a username and password for access.

IP access Username/password _____

7. Crossref advises members make reasonable business efforts to make archiving arrangements in the event that they are no longer able to maintain their content at the URLs deposited. We recommend consulting The Keepers Registry for advice and a list of archiving providers:
<http://www.thekeepers.org>.

8. Do you self-host or use a hosting provider? Self-host Hosting provider

If so, which hosting provider? _____

9. Do you use OJS/PKP? Yes No

10. Please list the dates of your most recent publications that will have DOIs assigned. If you have not yet published, state the planned date of publication:

11. All new applicants are required to attend or view the 'Introduction to Crossref' webinar available at <http://www.crossref.org/01company/webinar.html>.

12. Webinar viewed, date _____

All applications should review the Membership Qualifications and Rules at www.crossref.org/02publishers/59pub_rules.html to ensure that all member obligations are understood.

Signature of applicant

Date

I represent that the information on this application is true to the best of my knowledge. Errors or misrepresentations are grounds for denial of application.

Thank you for your interest in Crossref